Sir,

Adverting to Government Notification No. 832/Ml. 23-12-2 dated the 25th July 1912 appointing Councillors for the Tumkur Town Municipality for a period of 3 years, I have the honor to state that as the term of Office of the non-official councillors appointed in the said notification expires this month, steps were taken for the reconstitution of the Council. For the purposes of election the town was divided into six divisions as noted in the margin. After observing all the formalities required by the Municipal Election Rules 1909, the election was held on the 3rd instant and the results thereof were declared at a special meeting of the Municipal Council held at 5 P.M. the same day. A copy of the proceedings of the meeting is herein enclosed. I request that the members declared duly elected as noted in the margin may be appointed as members of the Council

4. Mr. Esuf Sab, Merchant
5. " Kodandaramasetty, Merchant.
6. " T. Hema Hanumanthiah, Retired Assistant Commissioner.
7. " B. Kesar Sing, Retired Amildar.

3. A statement showing the occupation, qualification etc., of both the elected and nominated members is submitted herewith.

4 With regard to the appointment of a Vice-President, Mr. C. Seshadri Iyengar, retired Assistant Commissioner has been holding this Office in an honorary capacity for the past two years, having been appointed to it by Government in their order No. 9681/Ml 269-12-6 dated 7th June 1913 and has by his tact, popularity and whole-hearted devotion to his work greatly contributed to the successful working of the Scheme of a non-official Vice-President for the Town. The experiment having thus proved so successful, I think that the time has come when the office of the Vice-President may be thrown open for election, particularly as there is a good number of public spirited gentlemen (including Mr. C. Seshadri Iyengar himself) among the new members I therefore beg to recommend that sanction may be accorded for the election of a Vice-President from among the non-official members of the Council under section 23 (2) (c) of the Municipal Regulation and that until such time as the election is held and orders are passed thereon by Government, Mr C. Seshadri Iyengar may be allowed to continue as Vice-President
